

Welcome to the Graduate Writing Fellowship Program at Bridgewater State University

Who Are the Graduate Writing Fellows?

- The Graduate Writing Fellows are graduate students from different academic disciplines who are strong writers.
- They are being trained to assist other graduate students on the various writing assignments the students have for their different graduate courses.

How Can the Graduate Writing Fellows Assist all Graduate Students?

The Graduate Writing Fellows can help all graduate students from all academic disciplines to:

- Clarify the writing assignment for the particular course
- Identify the theme for the paper
- Organize the paper
- Assist with revising and editing of the paper
- Assist with formatting the paper in the correct academic writing style (APA, MLA, Chicago, etc.)

Welcome to the Graduate Writing Fellowship Program at Bridgewater State University

What Do You Need to Do?

- Make an appointment with the Graduate Writing Fellow at the College of Graduate Studies, Student Services (Please see the Graduate Writing Fellow Schedule)
- Email the Graduate Writing Fellow for an appointment
- Bring a copy of the assignment for which you are writing the paper
- Bring a draft of your paper to your meeting with the Graduate Writing Fellow