Beta Sigma Chi

Counseling International Honor Society

Beta Sigma Chi is a chapter of Chi Sigma Iota, an international honor society for students, professional counselors, and counselor educators. Our mission is to promote professionalism, leadership, and excellence in counseling.

There are great benefits in becoming a member, including networking with students and professionals in the field, recognition of excellence, and invites to various conferences and workshops.

If you are a matriculated student in a counseling program at Bridgewater State University and have completed at least 9 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.5 then you may want to take advantage of all that Beta Sigma Chi has to offer.
