

Massachusetts Colleges Online Courses of Distinction Award

Massachusetts Colleges Online (MCO) Course of Distinction (COD) Award is given to one faculty member from each of the MCO member institutions for outstanding contributions to online learning. The COD award winners showcase their courses at MCO's annual conference. In order to be eligible for the award, a course must be at least 80% online, with content developed by the instructor.

Bridgewater State College's nominees for the Massachusetts Colleges Online Courses of Distinction Award are:

2004	Anne Hird	INST 509 Foundations of Instructional Technology
2005	Elizabeth Englander	PSYC 369 Psychology of Criminal Behavior
2006	Michael (Mick) Jones	ECON 210 Statistics for Economics and Business
2007	Shannon Donovan	ACFI 385 Managerial Finance
2008	James Hayes-Bohanan	GEOG 130 Environmental Geography