

WHERE WILL YOU BE THE
LAST DAY
OF FALL SEMESTER 2009
AT BSC?

Come this 10 December 2009, the last day of Fall Semester classes, you will have one of your first opportunities to distinguish yourself academically at BSC

AT THE MIDYEAR SYMPOSIUM FOR FIRST & SECOND YEAR STUDENTS.

ANY FIRST OR SECOND YEAR STUDENT IS ELIGIBLE TO PRESENT:

- The Symposium is not restricted to students in any particular program or major;
- you can present work from any course you are taking or have taken;
- ask your instructor for help in determining what a good project or paper would be for presentation.

The Office of Undergraduate Research sponsors the Midyear Symposium, with the support of the coordinators of the first and second year seminars, the first year writing program in the English Department and the Honors Program.
