Reason for Appeal (check all that apply):

- Violation of Due Process. Due process rights of an accused student include: the right to know the charges made against him/her; the right to know the origin of the charges; the right to a hearing; the right to state his/her version of the events; the right to appeal.
 - State what the due process violation was in your appeal

- Inappropriate Sanction(s)
 - State why the sanction(s) were inappropriate for the violation(s)

- New Evidence not reasonably available at the time of the hearing
 - State what the new evidence is and why it was not available at the time of your hearing

- Procedural Error that adversely affected the outcome of the hearing
 - State what the procedural error was and how it adversely affected the outcome of the hearing

Appeals will only be considered for the reasons listed above. Appeals must be in writing and delivered to the Chairperson of the Appellate Board, Office of Student Affairs, Boyden Hall, Room 106, within three school days. Please refer to your decision letter for your exact appeal deadline. Appeals must be typed with this form attached to the front. If you choose not to appeal, you must comply with the sanction(s) that are described in your decision letter.
