

Study Tour to Bangladesh

SCWK 355/559 – Study Tour to Bangladesh

January 2-17, 2010

Bridgewater State College's Office of Study Abroad invites you to earn academic credit on a faculty-led study tour to Bangladesh

This tour will provide an overview of Bangladeshi life (culture, tradition, history, society, and economy). Students will learn about life in Bangladesh through meeting people, visiting community development programs, cultural programs and site visits. The tour will include visits to the cities of Dhaka, Chittagong, Rangamati, Cox' Bazaar and Sundarban Forest.

Highlights

- Visits to BRAC University and Programs
- Visits to GRAMEEN and CARE programs
- Visits to UNDP projects
- Explore Rangamati (tribal area)
- Walk in the beaches at Cox's Bazaar
- Overnight boat and touring of Sundarban Forest

Faculty Leader: Nasreen Shibli

Nasreen, Shibli, MSW is the Field Education Specialist and Visiting Lecturer in the Department of Social Work. Nasreen specializes in macro social work. She has traveled extensively in South Asia.

3 credits: SCWK 355/559

Costs are to be determined

*Costs are subject to change

For more information contact the Office of Study Abroad
Maxwell Library Room 100B, Bridgewater State College

www.bridgew.edu/studyabroad