

ANNOUNCING A NEW CONGRESSIONAL FELLOWSHIP THROUGH NASW's SOCIAL WORK POLICY INSTITUTE

Help Shape Federal Child Welfare Policy. Apply for the New Social Work Child Welfare Congressional Fellowship

The Social Work Policy Institute (SWPI) of the NASW Foundation has launched a new fellowship, the Social Work Child Welfare Congressional Fellowship (CWCF). The fellowship will provide an invaluable public policy learning experience for an experienced child welfare social worker, who will spend one year working on child welfare legislation in the U.S. Senate. Only one fellowship will be granted. Applications for this one-year fellowship are due by Monday, March 5, 2012. For more information on the Fellowship and application requirements, visit www.socialworkpolicy.org/fellowship.

For more information about the Fellowship and other child welfare and workforce relevant resources, please visit www.SocialWorkPolicy.org.
