

Family Service of Greater Boston
31 Heath Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

Supervisor-Behavior Management Therapist - Full Time

In Home Behavioral Services is a Children's Behavioral Health Initiative service provided by Family Service of Greater Boston for eligible Boston children-youth and families.

Master's level experienced therapist to conduct functional behavioral assessments, develop behavior treatment plans with caregivers to be implemented in child/youth home. Supervise behavior management monitor(s) who coach caregivers in implementation of behavior plans. Supervise master level behavior management therapists completing functional behavioral assessments and behavior plans. Provide consultation to staff, caregivers and providers involved with clients as needed. BCBA preferred, ABA experience essential, bilingual (Spanish) preferred and supervisory experience required. Experience working with challenging behaviors, emotional disorders and caregivers/parents required.

Experience working with children on the autism spectrum disorders a plus. Service is provided in the home and community. Collaboration, team work and training are aspects of this position.

Provide clinical, administrative and supportive supervision of master level and bachelor level staff. There are opportunities for growth and expansion of this program.

FSGB offers competitive salaries, training opportunities, excellent benefits including vacation, holiday and sick time, health and dental, excellent support. FSGB is a historic, private, non profit agency with dynamic, diverse, committed and talented staff. Learn more about our organization on Face Book. AA/EOE

FSGB receives support from

Email Resume & Cover letter to:
pkiessling@fsgb.org
Family Service of Greater Boston
Patricia Kiessling, LICSW, Director Family Based & Youth Services
31 Heath Street
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130