

Fast Facts on the Bridgewater State University School of Social Work

- Offering social work education for over 30 years
- Over 1,400 graduates
- Only publicly funded School of Social Work in Southeastern Massachusetts
- Fully accredited BSW (2013) and MSW (2019) programs
- 21 full time faculty and staff
- Students placed in over 200 agencies in Massachusetts and Rhode Island
- Alumni assuming leadership roles in agencies throughout Eastern Massachusetts
- Award winning faculty
- Committed alumni giving back to BSU by supervising BSW and MSW interns
- Faculty giving back to the community through serving on local Boards of Directors and engaging in community practice
- Students presenting at national conferences
- Sponsoring international study tours to Bangladesh, China, Israel and India
- Faculty presenting at international, national and regional conferences
- Faculty serving on editorial boards of social work journals
- Students and faculty co-publishing and co-presenting at conferences
- Faculty receiving internal and external research funding

Committed faculty and staff, engaged students and dedicated alumni