Nunckatessett Greenway Stakeholder's Meeting

April 4th at 3:00pm in the Heritage Room, Maxwell Library at Bridgewater State University. The NG Stakeholders' Meeting will be the first introduction of property owners, trail and parkland users, and interested citizens to each other and to the 14-mile river corridor. This event should spark new interest in the future design and administration of this recreational corridor and its potential.

Great Balls of Fire!

April 22, 2011, Lower Great Hill Parking Lot, 1:00pm

Bridgewater Fire Department and Bridgewater State University are partnering on a demonstration of fire safety in the residence halls. Two dorm room replicas will be simultaneously set on fire. One room will have a sprinkler the other will not. The event will be filmed for educational use and for Public Service Announcements. Join the excitement!

Earth Day Celebration

April 23, 2011, 8:30am—12:00 Noon

Join us for our 6th Annual Earth Day Celebration! Volunteer to clean-up various park sites in Bridgewater, West Bridgewater and East Bridgewater. Meet at the Rondileau Campus Center to check in at 8:30am, spend the morning cleaning trails, etc., and join us for lunch back at the Campus Center at Noon. It's a fun way to help the environment and give back to our communities!

B2020 Improving the Downtown, Land Use and Communications

These three committees continue to meet and are developing strategies, lists of resources and ideas to share with Bridgewater's Town Council as recommendations for improving the downtown, best practices for planning and enhanced communication among the university, the town and the school district. We hope to present these ideas to the Town Council at a "Meet the Town Council" event on May 19, 2011 at 7pm. Location TBA.
