UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

BACHELOR OF ARTS

The Department of Foreign Languages offers students an opportunity to gain practical working knowledge of one or more of 10 foreign languages. Students may choose any of these 10 languages offered by the department unless otherwise advised by the requirements of their academic major. Students who are continuing the study of foreign languages at Bridgewater State College should do so at the earliest opportunity.

The department offers an undergraduate major and minor in Spanish, as well as a minor in Portuguese.

To maintain good standing, only grades of "C-" or better are allowed in each major course and in LANG 324 and EDHM 424. Thirty-six semester hours are required for a Spanish major.

For all prerequisites, equivalent course credit or preparation will be considered.

The Department of Foreign Languages participates in the multidisciplinary minor in Canadian Studies, the Latin American and Caribbean Studies minor, the Women's and Gender Studies minor and the Asian Studies minor. For specific information on these programs, consult the catalog section "Interdisciplinary and Preprofessional Programs."

MINOR IN SECONDARY EDUCATION

The minor in secondary education for licensure as a Teacher of Foreign Language (Spanish) 5-12 is inactive.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Students who would like to continue the study of foreign languages at Bridgewater State College should do so at the earliest opportunity.

With the exception of advanced-placement foreign language courses and foreign language College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams, credit may not be granted to students exempt from one to two semesters because of study of three or more secondary levels of the same foreign language or because of a placement score. Students whose total credit hours fall below the minimum 120 required for graduation due to a foreign language exemption would need to take additional free elective course work to meet this graduation requirement.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PLACEMENT POLICY

Foreign Language Courses

Students who would like to continue the study of foreign languages at Bridgewater State College should do so at the earliest opportunity. Foreign language courses count for the Global Culture and Humanities requirements of the core curriculum.

With the exception of advanced placement, foreign language courses, and foreign language College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams, credit may not be granted to students exempt from one to two semesters because of study of three or more secondary levels of the same foreign language or because of placement score.

Foreign Language Placement Policy

If you have completed four levels of foreign language in high school

- you must take the Foreign Language Placement Exam for higher placement in the same language or see the department chairperson of the Department of Foreign Languages if you wish to continue in the same language for which a placement test is not offered.
- you may begin a new foreign language at the 101 level.

If you have completed three levels of foreign language in high school

- you must take the Foreign Language Placement Exam for higher placement only.
- You may begin a new foreign language at the 101 level.

If it has been two or more years since you completed three levels of foreign language in high school

- you must take the Foreign Language Placement Exam and you may take ____101 for credit if the exam places you in ____101.
- you may begin a new foreign language at the 101 level.

If you are a transfer student from another college or university and

- you took a foreign language at your previous institution, your transfer credits will be assessed upon admission to Bridgewater State College.
- you did not take a foreign language at your previous institution; your remaining foreign language requirement (should there be one) will be determined by the result of the Foreign Language Placement Exam.

If your situation does not fit one of the categories above

- contact the Department of Foreign Languages, Tillinghast Hall, Room 340, 508.531.1379, for additional assistance.

Students who were exempt from foreign language study in high school or at previous colleges must go through a formal process to request a substitution of the foreign language requirement in certain majors at Bridgewater State College. Students with appropriate documentation should meet with the learning disabilities specialist or the disability resources coordinator as early as possible to receive information on the process requirements.

HONORS PROGRAM

The honors program in Spanish provides highly motivated Spanish majors with opportunities to enhance their academic program through intensive scholarly study and research designed to be of assistance in postgraduate employment or in the pursuit of an advanced degree in Spanish. Contact the Department of Foreign Languages for further information concerning eligibility and application.

OVERSEAS-STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

The Department of Foreign Languages urges its majors and minors to study abroad and can offer information on available study plans. The International and Exchange Programs Office and the Office of Student Affairs can assist students. Any student contemplating study abroad should consult the department with all pertinent documentation. Final acceptance of credit will be determined upon receipt of official transcripts and supporting material and, in some cases, may not be equivalent to the credits earned in a regular semester or year at Bridgewater State College.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING
