Questions:

- 1.) I teach an online course and want my students to view some film clips. Is Max Video Streaming Service available for my use?
- 2.) I am overwhelmed—I have new classes to prep for, a conference paper to write, and research on differential equations to conduct. Can Maxwell Library help me? What is MaxExpress? What is the Virtual Catalog? How do I submit interlibrary loan requests if an item is not in Maxwell Library?
- 3.) I have heard that information literacy is one of the core curriculum outcomes. Can a library faculty work with me to design course assignments to hone students' research and critical thinking skills? If so, how?
- 4.) Can the Library buy books, DVDs, scores, or other materials that I need for my classes? Does the Library buy textbooks?
- 5.) Does the Library have group study rooms for my students' use? Projection equipment? A learning commons? Color printing?
