CAMPUS ASSAULT

The Bridgewater State College Police Department recently received a report that a male student was assaulted by several unknown males in the area of East Hall. The victim did not know his attackers. The suspects are still at large. An investigation is ongoing.

The assault occurred at about 2:00 a.m. The suspects were identified as White men with black, short hair. Two of the men were wearing leather jackets. One of the men had a goatee. They pulled up on the victim in a dark green car.

The Police Department has increased patrols in the area, and detectives are pursuing several investigative leads.

In light of this report, we want to remind all Bridgewater State College students to take routine precautions to help ensure their personal safety. These precautions may include using the Safety Escort Service or walking in groups, and should include the immediate reporting of suspicious individuals, activities, or situations. Use a cellular telephone or one of the several "blue light" assistance phones on campus to call the Bridgewater State College Police Department at 508-531-1212.

Persons with information or questions are requested to contact the BSC Police Detective Division.
