THE DIRECTOR'S COMMENT

As Sean O'Casey suggests:

Laughter is wine for the soul -- laughter soft, or loud and deep, tinged through with seriousness. Comedy and tragedy step through life together, arm in arm, all along, out along, down along lea. Once we can laugh, we can live. It is the hilarious declaration made by man that life is worth living. Man is always hopeful of, always pushing toward, better things; and to bring this about, a change must be made in the actual way of life; so laughter is brought in to mock at things as they are so that they may topple down, and make room for better things to come.

Lee Dunne,
Director

A GUEST ARTIST

The Theatre Arts Faculty and Ensemble Theatre are pleased to feature an alumnae in the cast performing this evening.

She is Annie Barry (nee Ann Britton) who graduated in 1976 with honors in Theatre. While she was an undergraduate at Bridgewater State her acting credits included Ratty in The Wind In The Willows, Maria in Twelfth Night, and Essie Miller in Ah, Wilderness. Since her graduation she has not left "the boards," and has, indeed, expanded into stage management and directing, working with the following companies and organizations: Framingham State College, Hovey Players, Randolph Little Theatre, Open Door Theatre, Duxbury Bay Players, Brockton Community School Playhouse, Cranberry Players, Holbrook Independent Theatre, and Theatre One Productions.

Wherever they go, we hope they achieve what they desire from life, and we wish them well.
