

The American Studies Program at BSU presents

Indigenous Women's Success Stories

We seldom hear about Indigenous women's lives and experiences, and when we do, it is usually about negative and tragic aspects. Yet what about the success stories? What about the many achievements of Indigenous women of all Tribal/First Nations in all fields and areas of life? Join us today in hearing about and celebrating some of them. Q&A to follow. Open to the public.

Thursday | April 14, 2022 | 12:30-1:45pm

ZOOM

Registration required:

<https://bridgew.zoom.us/joining/register/jTcuf-qurT0rGNRPpLdJpoeU1eb1-wlfTri3>

Dr. Nitana Hicks Greendeer
Mashpee Wampanoag

Jennifer L. Denny
Mi'kmaq

Brittney Walley
Nipmuc

Dasia Peters
Mashpee Wampanoag, BSU Student

Carrie Provost
Oglala Lakota, BSU Student

Co-Sponsors: Native American and Indigenous Studies; Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

For information, please contact Dr. Simone Poliandri, spoliandri@bridgew.edu;
Dr. Joyce Rain Anderson, j10anderson@bridgew.edu