

B.S. in Aviation Science with Concentrations in Aviation Management and Flight Training

Data via internal records of Bridgewater State University and BSU's Office of Institutional Research

Number of graduates per year: Bachelor of Science in Aviation Science with concentrations in Aviation Management and Flight Training:

2015 total graduates: 34 (29 male; 5 female)

2016 total graduates: 35 (30 male; 5 female)

2017 total graduates: 41 (40 male; 1 female)

2018 total graduates: 52 (42 male; 10 female)

Spring/Summer 2019 total graduates: 26 (23 male; 3 female)

AY 2019-20* total graduates: 45 (34 male; 5 female)

This chart reflects a change in reporting to an academic year model, rather than a calendar year model. Therefore, graduation totals for the spring and summer of 2019 are reported separately. For further comparison, there were 45 (39 male; 6 female) total graduates in calendar year 2019.

*The global COVID-19 pandemic shut down all flight training activity from March-June 2020