

Hail to the Chief: Presidential Pets

NEW COURSE! Step inside the White House and meet the wide variety of both domestic and wild animals that have comforted and entertained the men who have held our nation's highest office. The instructor will use props to share the fascinating stories behind the fur and feathers that have roamed the Oval Office and grazed on the West Lawn. Participants will examine photographs, read primary source documents, and debate controversial stories. Whether you're a Republican, a Democrat, or an Independent, Hail To The Chief: Presidential Pets will earn your vote for the most enjoyable and informative way to spend an evening.

Date: Tuesday, 2:00 pm-4:00 pm
10/17

Registration Fee: $39 for this individual course, or register for all three of Nancy's courses for $99 and save $17! (A Sticky Situation: Boston's Great Molasses Flood and Read to Me: Sharing Picture Books with your Children and Grandchildren are Nancy's other courses, see descriptions above and below).

Register here

Instructor Bio: Nancy A. Franks retired in 2016 after thirty-two years as an elementary educator in Plymouth, Massachusetts. Within her successful career, Nancy taught graduate courses, authored four resource books for educators, and presented at national conventions. She earned numerous awards including the Presidential Award For Excellence in Mathematics Teaching, the highest honor a mathematics educator can hope to achieve. Nancy is currently the coordinator of Massachusetts Maritime Academy's Follow The Voyage – Share The Experience Program. She enjoys doing research on a wide variety of topics and sharing her discoveries with both children and adults.